

Finding intimacy, joy, and purpose in following Jesus.

It's easy to lose heart in a world filled with uncertainty, pain, and shattered dreams. More than ever, we need to recover our hearts to:

- experience intimacy with God when our hearts are broken
- find joy in our lives when we understand our broken hearts are made new in Christ
- know purpose as we move into our world with new hearts as His image bearers

Recover Your Heart seeks to explore these three “strands” so that we can live the abundant life that Jesus offers – we can recover our hearts and live fully with intimacy, joy, and purpose in knowing Him.

RECOVER your HEART

Libby Cannizzaro

Speaker

Libby Cannizzaro has a passion for ministry to women. She served as the Women's Ministry Coordinator for The Falls Church Anglican (TFCA) in Falls Church, VA, from 2010-2015 and currently serves on their women's teaching team and as a small group leader. Before her role at TFCA, she served for 21 years with Young Life in Northern Virginia. She met the Lord in Young Life as a teenager in Southern California and has had a passion for ministry ever since. She is married to Steve Cannizzaro, TFCA's Director of Discipleship and Outreach, and they are so grateful the Lord brought them together to live out their dream of discipling and encouraging others toward a transformational relationship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Taylor Leonhardt

Worship Leader

Taylor Leonhardt is a songwriter, musician, and worship leader, with a heart for finding God's story in the midst of our ordinary lives. Taylor has recorded two projects as a songwriter: an EP, Truest Things (2015), and her debut full-length album RIVER HOUSE (September 2017). Born and raised in Texas, the Fellows Program brought Taylor to North Carolina six years ago, and she has called Raleigh home ever since. She currently serves as the worship leader at Redeemer Anglican Church. You can find Taylor walking her dog, June, at the lake, grabbing coffee with a friend at Sola, or reading up on the Enneagram (she's a 2!)
